2010-2011 State Officer Election and Voting Process

In addition to training and networking, the RLC will host the FALL STATE OFFICER ELECTIONS. Potential candidates will be asked to complete a written test, complete an interview and present a candidate speech for the delegation.

Those interested in seeking a position on the Cal-HOSA State Officer team must submit an application to Cal-HOSA Headquarters by October 1, 2010.

Each local chapter must appoint/elect voting delegates to participate in the election process. Each region will select ONE state officer.

More information about the State Officer election process can be obtained accessing the Advisor's Handbook at www.cal-hosa.org.
